

ACCESS TO BUSINESS
OPPORTUNITIES IN THE GOVERNMENT SECTOR
(BOGS)
TUESDAY APRIL 19, 2005

You should be at BOGS if:

- ✓ You are in business and are seeking expanded business opportunities
- ✓ You want to understand the business opportunities provided through the state budget
- ✓ You want to learn about Federal, State and other local government procurement and construction opportunities
- ✓ You want to meet prime vendors looking to improve their supplier diversity activities
- ✓ You want to learn about mentor-protégé programs

BOGS WORKSHOP
MONONA TERRACE CONVENTION CENTER
One John Nolen Drive
Madison, Wisconsin

Contact: Godwin Amegashie, Director
State Minority Business Enterprise Program
Wisconsin Department of Administration
Division of State Agency Services
Tel: (608) 267-7806 or (608) 267-3293
E-mail: godwin.amegashie@doa.state.wi.us

Contact: Neil Lerner, Director
UW-Madison School of Business
Small Business Development Center
Grainger Hall of Business Administration
Tel: (608) 263-0221
E-mail: nslearner@wisc.edu

BOGS 2005 is hosted by:
Wisconsin Department of Administration

Additional planning partners include:
Madison Area Technical College BPAC
Small Business Development Center
U.S. Small Business Administration
Wisconsin Department of Commerce
Wisconsin Department of Transportation

For More Information and Registration visit:
<http://matcmadison.edu/bpac/bogs>

